

Neil M. Gunn The Poaching at Grianan

'arguably the finest writer Scotland has ever produced...an insight into the development of his talent and ideas'

With an introduction by noted Gunn scholar Professor Alistair McCleery and a foreword by Dairmid Gunn, Gunn's nephew, this vital and insightful work is available for the first time in book form.

A limited edition of 250 numbered copies are available for £18 including posting and packing

Presenting a unique opportunity to own the missing piece in Gunn's literary canon...

Format: hardback. Dimensions: 129mm x 198mm.
Extent: 200 pages. ISBN: 1 872 800 61 0

order form...

Please fill in your details and return along with a cheque/postal order for £_____ for _____ copies made payable to 'Napier University'

Scottish Centre for the Book, Napier University, Craighouse Campus, EDINBURGH, EH10 5LG

Name _____

Address _____

Contact telephone number _____

Email address _____